

New Governor Certification: Induction programme - how to be an effective governor or trustee

Overview

Our certified induction programme for new governors and trustees covering the essentials of governance and what is involved in being a governor or trustee. The programme runs over six weeks and consists of three x 2-hour webinars. Participants take a short test at the end to gain their certificate of governance.

What you will learn

The programme will cover a wide range of topics including:

- Understanding governance structures and the role of governors/trustees
- An introduction to being strategic
- How to prepare and participate effectively in meetings
- Planning, completing and reporting your monitoring
- Understanding the curriculum and monitoring education
- Understanding safeguarding, prevent and pupil wellbeing
- An introduction to special educational needs (SEN)
- An introduction to vulnerable pupils – Pupil Premium, looked after children and young carers
- Understanding the financial responsibilities of a board
- An introduction to the employee responsibilities of the board

All delegates will receive an electronic copy of the presentation and supporting materials and resources to help them be more impactful in their governance role plus a certificate on successful completion.
