A practical guide for governors and trustees

Overview

Far more is expected of schools in the latest lockdown (from January 2021), including requirements to deliver remote education. Boards are expected to hold schools to account for the quality of education during lockdown.

This webinar provides practical guidance on how to monitor the quality of education, including remote education and the expectations of schools during the lockdown. Checklists and key questions to ask on all aspects of school life during lockdown are provided to help you monitor your school during this challenging time. The following will be explored:

- The legal requirements during lockdown
- Who can attend school?
- What does good education look like and how to monitor it?
- Oversight of employer duties during lockdown
- Financial considerations during lockdown
- How to monitor during lockdown including;
 - Monitoring support for SEND pupils
 - Monitoring support for disadvantaged pupils
 - Monitoring catch-up expectations
 - Monitoring pupil mental health and wellbeing support
 - Monitoring school meal provision
 - Monitoring health and safety
 - Monitoring Safeguarding

All delegates receive an electronic copy of the presentation and supporting materials and resources to help them be more impactful in their governance role.

Who should attend?

Any governors or trustees who wants to ensure they are effective in monitoring and holding to account during lockdown. Suitable for governors or trustees of all education phases.

Tutor

Rosemary Lovatt is the NLG Advocate for East of England and NE London. She is an experienced chair and governance tutor who runs the Governance Leadership Programme across England.

What people say about our training

'The best governor training I have ever attended'

'Inspiring! Thanks you! I now feel confident to be a more strategic governor'

'At last, training that provides tools, examples and checklists to help us do the job!'

About our training

As experienced Chairs of Governors we strongly believe in providing training that gives you the knowledge, tools and examples to be effective governors. Our aim is to give you the confidence and tools to improve your governance as quickly and effectively as possible. All our training is provided by National Leaders of Governance who are experienced governance trainers. See our website for more details: www.nlgeast.co.uk

About NLGs

National Leaders of Governance (NLGs) are experienced chairs of governing boards. All NLGs have been through a rigorous designation process from the National College of Teaching and Leadership (NCTL), a part of the Department for Education (DfE), to demonstrate that we have the skills, experience and attributes to be a National Leader of Governance. All NLGs are either actively chairing standalone schools or academies, local governing boards or multi academy trust (MAT) trust boards or have done so within the last five years. All NLGs are trained to support governors through mentoring and coaching and provide governance services which are quality assured.
