- Developing a governance monitoring plan
- How to ensure effective monitoring – Plan, Do, Review
- Receiving the right data in the right format
- Having 'holding to account' discussions

Who should attend?

All governors and trustees, including those new to governance, or those who want a refresher.

Tutor

Rosemary is a highly experienced governance consultant who ran the DfE governance leadership programme across the country for three years and within Essex for a further three years. She has extensive experience of undertaking governance reviews and designing, developing, and delivering training for governors and trustees. Rosemary's background is in the corporate sector where she gained 20 years' experience as a senior global leader. She has a BA(Hons) in Accountancy and Business Studies. Rosemary has chaired boards in a large secondary academy, a maintained primary school, a primary school within a multi academy trust (MAT) and a large junior school within a diocesan MAT, as well as being a trustee in four different MATs. Rosemary was a designated National Leader of Governance and is currently vice chair of a growing MAT and has recently joined the local governing board of a special school in Essex. Rosemary is also an NGA consultant.
