How will my School benefit?

Schools will have accredited mentors who have the appropriate accreditation and therefore are able to mentor trainee teachers and Newly Qualified Teachers effectively when the 2-year NQT induction is introduced. Trainees and Newly Qualified Teachers will benefit from having a qualified mentor who can challenge, support and guide them during those crucial early years of teaching, supporting them in their journey to be the best teacher that they can be!

How will my students benefit?

Students will in turn benefit from having a skilled and motivated teacher who feels supported to provide the high quality teaching that leads to the best possible student outcome.
