

How to monitor staff wellbeing, workload and Performance Management

This course guides boards on the role they play in making their school the employer of choice including understanding your statutory employer duties and the legislative framework; supporting the motivation and engagement of staff; understanding teacher workload; monitoring performance management and professional development in school; and developing strategies to make your school an attractive place to work. This is ideal for any governor focusing on people matters.

What you will learn:

- Understanding current context and challenges
- What are your employer duties?
- How to support staff mental health and wellbeing
- Ensuing the right culture in your school
- Monitoring staff workload
- Monitoring staff performance management, CPD and leadership
- Board responsibilities

All delegates receive an electronic copy of the presentation and supporting materials and resources to help them to be more impactful in their governance role.

Who should attend?

Every governor or trustee responsible for staff matters. Suitable for governors or trustees of all education phases.
