

Governance of SEND and Inclusion

A practical guide to the quality and impact of SEND provision and inclusiveness of the curriculum

As schools experience rising numbers of pupils with SEND and tighter funding, governance of SEND, including oversight of the quality of education provided to SEND pupils and the inclusiveness of the curriculum, should be a high priority for all boards

This governance training provides practical guidance on the governance of SEND and ensuring your school is inclusive.

- What is SEND?
- Understanding roles and responsibilities relating to SEND
- Oversight of SEND finance and its impact
- How to monitor SEND provision and hold to account
- Developing an SEND governance action plan

Who should attend?

Any governors or trustees who have responsibilities for SEND, or governors who want to understand more about governance of SEND and inclusion.

Tutor

With over 25 years in education and Governance, Julie Taylor is an experienced chair and National Leader of Governance who has a track record of supporting governance boards across Essex and beyond.

What people say about our training

'The best governor training I have ever attended'

'Inspiring! Thank you! I now feel confident to be a more strategic governor'

'At last, training that provides the tools, examples and checklists to help us do the job'

About our training

As experienced Chairs of Governors we strongly believe in providing training that gives you the knowledge, tools and examples to be effective governors. Our aim is to give you the confidence and tools to improve your governance as quickly and effectively as possible. All our training is provided by National Leaders of Governance who are experienced governance trainers. See our website for more details: www.nlgeast.co.uk

About NLGs

National Leaders of Governance (NLGs) are experienced chairs of governing boards. All NLGs have been through a rigorous designation process from the National College of Teaching and Leadership (NCTL), a part of the Department for Education (DfE), to demonstrate that we have the skills, experience and attributes to be a National Leader of Governance. All NLGs are either actively chairing standalone schools or academies, local governing boards or multi academy trust (MAT) trust boards or have done so within the last five years. All NLGs are trained to support governors through mentoring and coaching and provide governance services which are quality assured.
