

Effective Facilitation Skills for the Classroom, Leadership and CPD (Primary & Secondary)

Are you looking for new ideas and approaches to encourage children to engage actively in their learning inside and outside of the classroom?

How effective are your staff meetings/CPD sessions - are you keen to make them more interactive?

If the answer to either question above is YES, this course may be for you!

Who is this course for?

For Primary and Secondary practitioners who wish to develop facilitation skills in order to enhance leadership skills; the quality of their teaching; and lead effective staff meetings/Continuous Professional Development sessions.

Course Content

Through a fun, interactive course, delegates will develop a greater understanding of what effective facilitation looks like and the benefits of it, whilst exploring a range of proven facilitation techniques, skills and strategies that will instil confidence, motivate, and empower colleagues and children to succeed. Many of the facilitation techniques explored in this course are immediately transferable to the classroom raising pupil engagement in learning.

Who are the Trainers?

This course has been designed and will be delivered by Suzanne Haskins (NLE) and Clare Smith (SLE) both experienced National College accredited facilitators.
